

1. The main finding of the book “Silent Spring” was that the use of the use of DDT pesticides was killing birds and harming the environment. Also, she described how DDT entered the food chain and accumulated in the fatty tissues of the birds , animals and humans and how that caused cancer and genetic damage [?].